

Financial Education Teacher

To help meet our mission and vision, we are seeking a Financial Education Teacher to teach the local participants about the basics of finance through our local remote pilot program. If you are an experienced professional that enjoys teaching online to help people reach their individual goals, mentoring individuals to build a strong financial foundation, and making an impact in your community, then this role is for you. Starting every Tuesday from September 14th at 6:30-7:30 pm through Zoom for 10 weeks. All materials will be provided, and extra materials will be subject to review.

After the remote program finishes, you will then have the option to move onto one-on-one mentorship with a participant. Meetings for the mentorship program will be held in person unless alternative (remote) accommodations have been made.

FHR has been serving the community for 30 years and has a commitment to housing stability and affordability. We currently work in two pillars, affordable rental units to provide housing now, and housing counseling to provide long-term housing stability and wealth creation.

Our Mission:

We create lasting solutions to help individuals and families reach financial freedom through housing support, education, and partnership.

Our Vision:

We envision a community with equal access to quality, affordable housing, and pathways to increased wealth and financial freedom.

Responsibilities:

- Minimum of 3-5 hours total for 2 lectures (1-2 hours of preparation and 1-hour lecture)
- Minimum of 3-5 hours for a total of 3 mentorship meetings with participants
- Be a strong leader who encourages engagement and retention of participants
- Able to educate, motivate, and lead others in a professional matter.

Qualifications:

- Master's degrees from a business school/ and or bachelor's degree with experience OR
- An established professional /high achieving graduate student

- Business certification(s) such as CPA, CFA, CFA, Etc. Is a plus
- Two recommendation letters from a business-related field
- Be available on Tuesday nights from 6:30-7:30 pm to teach online
- Flexibility with financial education course content
- Confident, adaptable, and patient teacher

This is an unpaid opportunity to gain experience and knowledge in financial education and mentorship. You must have excellent communication, computer and writing skills.

Please contact volunteer@fhrinc.net, if interested.